VAN MAHOTSAV

Van Mahotsav "Forest Festival" is an annual one-week tree planting festival in India which is celebrated in the first week of July. It is a great traditional Indian festival that reflects Indian culture and heritage to honour and love Mother Earth Day by planting trees, by creating awareness of nature's beauty, and by fostering an environment to promote the concept of reduce, reuse and recycle. The words 'Van' and 'Mahotsav' are derived from Sanskrit language. 'Van' refers to forest and 'Mahotsav' means great festival. So the literal meaning of Van Mahotsav can be deduced to "A great forest festival." Our college celebrated 'Van Mahotsav' very enthusiastically. Students and Teachers participated very actively. They planted many trees and gave speeches on this occasion. Celebrating this festival is directly related to significantly contributing to increase in the greenery of India and the world around.
